Instructions: Peach Cobbler, Mama's Way This came from a Southern Living Magazine recipe. I actually halved the recipe with approximate half measurements. It's wonderful! It's kind of labor-intensive, but good enough to make it worth it. 2 to 15 fresh peaches, peeled and sliced (about 16 cups) 1 c. all-purpose flour flour, nutmeg, and 3 cups sugar in a Dutch oven. Bring to a boil; reduce heat; reduce heat to low, and simmer 10 minutes. Remove from heat; add butter and vanilla. Spoon half of mixture into a lightly greased 9-inch square baking dish. 2. Unroll 2 piecrusts. Sprinkle ¼ cup pecans and 1/2 cup sugar over 1 piecrust; top with other piecrust. Roll to a 14- x 10-inch rectangle. Trim sides to fit baking dish. Place pastry over peach mixture in dish. Bake at 475° for 20 to 25 minutes or until lightly browned. Unroll remaining piecrust. Sprinkle 2 Tbsp. sugar and remaining ¼ cup pecans over 1/2 cup sugar on remaining piecrust. Roll into a 12-inch circle. Cut into 1-inch wide strips. Fluted pastry wheel. Spoon remaining peach mixture over base. Arrange pastry strips over peach mixture; sprinkle with remaining sugar. Bake 15 to 18 minutes or until lightly browned. Serve warm or cold with vanilla cream.
